Goal:

The goal of the URC Institute is to provide learning opportunities in theology, history, apologetics, mission, and culture, so that our personal faith in Jesus Christ is clarified and strengthened. In this way we hope, along with the Apostle Paul, that the barriers to spiritual growth are removed by the truth of Scripture resulting in a personal and dynamic witness in all areas of our lives.

We hope to engage a number of issues within a variety of academic disciplines at upcoming Institutes:

Science and Creation

The Intelligent Design Inference

Ethics

What does it mean to be human?
Genetic Engineering, Eugenics and Abortion.
Transgender & Homosexuality

Core Christian Beliefs

The Reliability of Scripture
The Interpretation of Scripture

Reformed Theology

World Religions

Church History

Christianity and Politics
